(2) Alaris shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Customer arising directly or indirectly from Alaris' failure or delay to perform any of its obligations as set out in the Contract; and the Customer shall reimburse Alaris on written demand for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by Alaris arising directly or indirectly from the Customer Default. (3) Where, in Alaris' reasonable opinion, equipment is no longer capable of economic repair or where parts are no longer available, such equipment may be removed from the scope of the Contract on written notice to the Customer. 15. DATA PROTECTION: (1) Each party will comply with its obligations in terms of laws and regulations relating to the protection or disclosure of personal data, sensitive data or such other data which is deemed to be 'personal' pursuant to applicable data protection law in force from time to time. 16. MAJOR BUSINESS CHANGE: (1) If in the reasonable opinion of Alaris there is or is likely to be a major change in the business operations of Alaris which has or could have an adverse impact on the viability of the provision of the Professional Services to be supplied to the Customer ("Major Business Change"), Alaris shall notify the Customer and Alaris and the Customer shall meet and discuss in good faith whether the provisions of any Contract between Alaris and the Customer needs to be varied. (2) In the event that the parties cannot agree in good faith on such contract variations within a period of 30 days of the parties meeting, then either party has the right to terminate any contract between them. (3) Unless otherwise agreed by Alaris and the Customer in writing, the rights and obligations of the parties which have arisen prior to termination shall not be affected and shall stay in full force and effect. For the avoidance of doubt, with effect from the date of termination, Alaris shall have no obligation to supply or deliver any Professional Services under the relevant Contract anymore. (3) Breach of this Section shall constitute a breach not capable of remedy and, without prejudice to any other remedy, entitle Alaris to terminate the Contract immediately. (4) Customer shall from time to time, at the reasonable request and reasonable cost of Alaris: (i) confirm in writing that it has complied with its obligations under this Section and provide any information reasonably requested by Alaris in support of such compliance; and (ii) permit Alaris to have such access to Customer's books, accounts and records (and to take such copies thereof) as reasonably necessary in order to verify compliance with this Section, and to meet with Customers' personnel as are relevant to the Contract to audit such compliance. (5) Customer shall promptly report to Alaris in writing upon becoming aware that it or any of its Associated Persons: (i) have received any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage in connection with the performance of the Contract; or (ii) are the subject of any actual, pending or threatened police, judicial or regulatory investigation or proceedings in relation to any suspected breach of any Anti-Bribery Laws. (3) If any term, provision or part thereof of these Conditions is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of these Conditions or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. The invalid or unenforceable provision shall be replaced by a provision which comes closest to the economic effect of the invalid/unenforceable provision. (4) No waiver by Alaris of any of the provisions of these Conditions is effective unless explicitly set forth in writing and signed by Alaris. (5) No failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege arising from these Conditions operates, or may be construed, as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder precludes any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege. (6) Neither party shall have any liability for a failure to meet its obligations to the extent that this failure is directly or indirectly due to riot, terrorism, government act or regulation, fire, flood, explosion, machine breakdowns, materials shortages, transportation or working difficulties, accident, or any other event beyond the reasonable control of the affected party and the period of time to fulfil any obligations (save for obligations to make payment) shall be correspondingly extended. (7) Customer shall not assign, transfer, delegate or subcontract any of its rights or obligations under these Conditions without the prior written consent of Alaris. Any purported assignment or delegation in violation of this Section shall be null and void. (8) The Contract is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of the Contract. (9) The Contract does not and is not intended to give rights, or any right to enforce any of its provisions, to anyone who is not a party to it. (10) The relationship between the parties is that of independent contractors. Nothing contained in these Conditions or any purchase order shall be construed as creating any agency, partnership, joint venture or other form of joint enterprise, employment or fiduciary relationship between the parties, and neither party shall have authority to contract for or bind the other party in any manner whatsoever. (11) Subject to the terms of any signed written agreement which shall prevail, the Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and extinguishes any prior drafts, agreements, undertakings, understandings, promises or conditions, whether oral or written, express or implied between the parties relating to such subject matter. (12) Each party acknowledges to the other that it has not been induced to enter into the Contract nor has it relied upon any representation, promise, assurance, warranty or undertaking (whether in writing or not) by or on behalf of the other party or any other person. (13) All amounts due to Alaris shall be paid in full without any deduction or withholding and the Customer shall not assert any set-off or counterclaim against Alaris to justify withholding payment in whole or in part. (14) Without waiver or limitation of any of its rights or remedies where Alaris has incurred any liability to the Customer, whether under the Contract or otherwise, Alaris may set off the amount of such liability, including any applicable VAT payable, against any sums owed at any time by the Customer to Alaris. (15) Alaris reserves the right to alter or amend the Contract or any special terms generally or for any particular class of Professional Services by written notice to the Customer. (16) All matters arising out of or relating to the Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Finland, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule. Any legal suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Contract shall be brought in the Finnish courts, and each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts in any such suit, action or proceeding. The application of the United Nations Convention for the International Sale of Goods (CISG) is excluded.
