(4) Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Alaris, any information disclosed to Alaris by Supplier in connection with the Contract, whether or not labelled to indicate that the contents are of a proprietary or confidential nature, shall be considered as having been disclosed to and received by Alaris on a non-confidential basis as part of the consideration for any purchase order. (5) Alaris shall have no legal obligation to Supplier regarding use and/or disclosure of such information, except for obligations arising under any applicable intellectual property related laws.

15. TERMINATION: (1) In addition to any remedies that may be provided under the Contract, Alaris may terminate the Contract with immediate effect upon written notice to the Supplier, either before or after the acceptance of the Goods or performance of the Services, if Supplier has not performed or complied with any of these terms of the Contract, in whole or in part, or if Supplier becomes insolvent, files a petition for bankruptcy or commences or has commenced against it proceedings relating to bankruptcy, receivership, reorganization or assignment for the benefit of creditors. (8) Alaris reserves the right to alter or amend these Conditions or any special terms generally or for any particular class of Goods or Services by written notice to the Supplier. (9) The relationship between the parties is that of independent contractors. Nothing contained in the Contract shall be construed as creating any agency, partnership, joint venture or other form of joint enterprise, employment or fiduciary relationship between the parties, and neither party shall have authority to contract for or bind the other party in any manner whatsoever. (10) Supplier shall at all times be responsible for its employees and personnel, and in no case shall Alaris be deemed an employer or otherwise responsible for Supplier's employees, staff, agents, or other personnel.
